

CONTEMPORARY ART EXHIBITION PRESENTED IN LORIENT, FRANCE

Moncton, July 18 2012 – Anthropography: Three Contemporary Perspectives features the work of three Acadian artists, Maryse Arseneault, Mathieu Léger and Stefan St-Laurent, and is presented as part of the Year of Acadie during Lorient's Inter-Celtic Festival. The opening will be held on Saturday, August 4 at 11 AM, with the artists and the curator in attendance.

The work included in the show features a variety of artistic practices, such as a video installation, printmaking and text-based work on found objects. The exhibition's curator, Jennifer Bélanger suggests an overarching theme to the artists' work: "Each of these artists, Maryse Arseneault, Mathieu Léger and Stefan St-Laurent, put forth a contemporary perspective on Acadian history through an examination of its links with other cultures present in the Acadian geographic and cultural environment."
