MONCTON, Mai 25 2011 –Building Clouds: Six Contemporary Printmakers will be presented at Galerie d'art Louise et Reuben-Cohen throughout the Summer from June 15 to September 11, 2011. Curated by Jennifer Bélanger, Building Clouds proposes print-based work that explore the limits of printmaking and imagery related to fabricated landscapes. The opening will be held on Wednesday, June 15, at 5 PM in conjunction with the opening of Folktales and Storytelling in Acadie presented by the Acadian Museum. Early in the evening, Jennifer Bélanger will talk about the works in relation to the exhibition.

As guest curator, Jennifer Bélanger has conceived a print exhibition that focuses on common features in the work. "Through fabricated landscapes, six printmakers explore mapping, artificiality, earthly and otherworldly elements to reinvent and comprehend the world in which we live. Through an interdisciplinary investigation of their respective techniques, Building Clouds is a survey of six divergent constructs which draw on similar archetypes and symbols most of which are found in nature."

Featured artists in this exhibition are New Brunswick and Nova Scotia based printmakers Jacques Arseneault, Maryse Arseneault, Mark Bovey, Erik Edson, Mitch Mitchell and the Yo Rodeo art team. Jennifer Bélanger maintains a multidisciplinary art practice and is director of Imago Print Studio since 2000.

The exhibition, Building Clouds, has the support of Imago Print Shop and the Nova Scotia Printmakers' Association. The artist, Mark Bovey, would like to thank Communities, Culture, and Heritage Nova Scotia. Galerie d'art Louise et Reuben-Cohen is located at 405, Université Avenue, in the Clément-Cormier Building on the Université de Moncton campus. Admission is free and the gallery is open between 10 am and 5 pm, Monday to Friday, and between 1 pm and 5 pm, Saturday and Sunday. For information, please call (506) 858-4088 or email galrc@umoncton.ca.
